APPEALS IN THE STATES

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 20.—Samuel H. Hoffheimer, a member of Nelson's staff, the millionaire, who was arrested last week, charged with having been a member of the "Black Legion," a secret organization, has been sentenced to 10 years in the state prison. Hoffheimer was taken to jail. Two years ago while he was carrying on a commission business in Chicago and selling bonds, he was arrested by the police and was released after paying a fine of $100. Hoffheimer had been in the city for some time before he was arrested. He had been in the city for some time before he was arrested. He had been in the city for some time before he was arrested.

He went into the city to check for a number of purchases from Stranahan & Co. and at the same time would deliver to the bank checks on the bank of $100,000. Hoffheimer was taken to jail.
